PROGRAMS

The Division of Community Corrections supervises offenders under the jurisdiction of the state. It includes Field Services and a variety of programs to help offenders re-assimilate into the community. Deputy Commissioner Jerry Williams oversees this division.

Field Services

Field Services is responsible for supervising offenders released on parole, intensive supervision or house arrest, earned release supervision (ERS), medical release, and those sentenced by a court to probation or house arrest.

F.R.E.E. (Facing Reality Educationally and Emotionally)

There are 13 F.R.E.E. program coordinators located statewide to assist field officers in monitoring offenders' treatment needs for substance abuse. In addition, program coordinators teach a life skills curriculum twice a month to assist offenders.

Interstate Compact

Mississippi participates in the Interstate Compact for Adult Offenders. Under the terms of the compact agreement, the MDOC provides courtesy supervision to probationers and parolees from other states in exchange for courtesy supervision of Mississippi offenders residing in other states.

Pre-Trial Diversion

The Pre-Trial Diversion program is an alternative to a felony conviction. A defendant voluntarily submits to supervision ranging from six months to three years. Charges against the individual may be dismissed if the period of supervision is successfully completed.

Intensive Supervision Program

The Intensive Supervision Program (ISP), commonly referred to as house arrest, provides supervision in a community setting rather than incarceration. Offenders are required to wear electronic monitoring equipment and are limited in most cases to employment, treatment, and worship services activities. Each offender maintains inmate status and can be immediately placed in an MDOC facility upon violation of the program.

Drug Testing

Field officers are responsible for drug testing of offenders, either routine or upon reasonable suspicion, and random drug testing of 15% of the offender population each month.

Restitution Centers

The state's four restitution centers assist residents in obtaining employment as a condition of their probationary sentence. Money earned by residents is distributed to crime victims for restitution, courts for court costs and fines, and MDOC for room and board. The remainder of the wages, after taxes, goes to the residents' families or to the residents' holding account. Upon completion of the program, the residents are referred to a field officer for supervision and remains with the officer for their probationary sentence.

Community Work Centers

There are 17 Community Work Centers throughout Mississippi. Minimum security inmates are assigned to these centers and are provided a gradual re-introduction into community life. The centers include alcohol and drug counseling; Adult Basic Education and GED preparation; literacy classes; and religious programs. Each Community Work Center houses approximately 102 inmates who perform a wide range of labor at no cost to city, county and state government agencies and school districts. This work includes community beautification projects; bridge and road work repair; vehicle maintenance; and water, sewer, and sanitation details.

Inmate Labor

In FY 2014, the offenders in the Community Work Centers provided entities with 1,959,237 total inmate hours, valued to equal $14,204,495 (at minimum wage) in free labor. For the same 12 months, the residents in the restitution centers provided entities with 343,543 total resident work hours valued at minimum wage to equal approximately $2,490,687 in free labor.

In FY 2014, the offenders in the Community Work Centers provided entities with 1,959,237 total inmate hours, valued to equal $14,204,495 (at minimum wage) in free labor.
