Inmate serving life sentence dies in prison

JACKSON – An inmate serving a life sentence, plus 40 years, for kidnapping and rape has died in prison.

Charles E. Wilson, 64, was pronounced dead at the Central Mississippi Correctional Facility in Rankin County on Sunday night. An autopsy will determine the official cause and manner of death.

Wilson, MDOC #44482, was convicted of kidnapping a woman and three children from Louisiana in 1982 and was sentenced to life on March 10, 1983, in Amite County. He later pleaded guilty to raping the female and received the 40 years to run concurrently to the life sentence.
