State Inmate at Carroll-Montgomery County Regional Dies

JACKSON – An inmate serving 25 years for two counts of residential burglary in Rankin County has died in prison.

Philip E. Adelsheimer, 30, was found unresponsive in his cell at the Carroll-Montgomery County Regional Correctional Facility in Vaiden on Thursday.

There appears to be no foul play, according to the Montgomery County coroner. An autopsy will determine the official cause and the manner of death.

Adelsheimer, MDOC #210636, was sentenced July 10, 2016.
