MDOC congratulates recent MLEOTA graduates

JACKSON – They made it with great expectations!

Congratulations to MDOC's latest graduates from the Mississippi Law Enforcement Officers' Training Academy (MLEOTA). The academy, located on 243 acres on Highway 468 across from the Central Mississippi Correctional Facility in Pearl, has operated since 1967 meeting the state's law enforcement community's training needs.

MLEOTA features firearms training, classroom instruction, basic and advanced law enforcement training programs. Cities, counties, as well as state agencies send their recruits to the facility each year for certification before returning to their hiring organizations for duty.
