

April 1, 2026

MSP inmate blues band receives instruments

PARCHMAN – The Parchman Prison Blues Band needed new instruments. Music Maker Foundation delivered.

At Mississippi State Penitentiary at Parchman, inmates are finding hope and purpose in the prison's newly revived blues band. Music Maker and Jimbo Mathus are working together to record them so these artists can spread their message of dignity and redemption - and so this historic band's contribution to the blues can be preserved for future generations.

