Probation/Parole Agent presents donations

PONTOTOC - Probation and Parole Agent Elizabeth McClendon visited The Chase House of Restoration in Pontotoc on June 1, and dropped off children's clothing and stuffed animals for the female residents.

The Chase House is among the treatment providers the MDOC uses in the state. The faith-based rehabilitation home is dedicated to rebuilding lives.

Agent McClendon, who is assigned to the Pontotoc MDOC Office, was commended for her act of kindness.
