

July 2, 2026

One step at a time at Marshall prison for 15 graduates

HOLLY SPRINGS – Marshall County Correctional Facility recently celebrated the graduation of 15 inmates in the Substance Use Disorder Program. The men completed short-term alcohol and drug treatment.

"This was a great accomplishment for each of the graduates, as this program includes the first steps to recovery," said Interim Superintendent Clint Mauney. "I am very proud of each of these men."

