"It is a privilege to serve alongside such dedicated professionals each day," Robinson said. "The "Lifting As We Climb" Recognition Spotlight is more than an awards program it is a reflection of the values we strive to uphold at Central Mississippi Correctional Facility. I firmly believe that great leadership is measured not only by personal achievement but by the ability to encourage, mentor, and elevate those around us."

To the award recipients, Robinson said, "Thank you for your commitment, professionalism, and the positive example you set for your peers. Your hard work, integrity, and unwavering dedication to our mission do not go unnoticed. You represent the very best of our institution and embody the principles of safety, security, care, custody, and control. As we move forward together, let us remain committed to lifting one another as we climb, building future leaders, celebrating excellence, and creating a workplace where every employee is valued, respected, and empowered to succeed."
