

July 7, 2026

Marshall prison honors creative arts inmates

HOLLY SPRINGS – Marshall County Correctional Facility is recognizing 15 inmates who graduated from the Creative Arts Program in June.

"The arts program is a great program we offer that helps the inmates learn to be creative, and it keeps them active in something they love to do," said acting Supt. Thomas C. Mauney.

