

Corrections and Criminal Justice Task Force meets at and tours Central Mississippi state prison

PEARL – The Corrections and Criminal Justice Oversight Task Force met on July 17 at the Central Mississippi Correctional Facility to observe the program offerings firsthand. The Task Force toured the vocational training programs at the facility.

The task force previously met on May 8 at the Mississippi State Penitentiary at Parchman, where it toured certain locations, which included programs.

Featured are scenes from the May visit to Parchman.

Featured are scenes from the July visit to CMCF.

