

Remembering K9 Officer 'Floki'

MARSHALL – The Mississippi Department of Corrections recently received a medal and certificate from the Law Enforcement Medal of Honor Committee, as displayed here by Deputy Commissioner John Hunt, in memory of K9 Officer Floki.

Floki, a 7-year-old multipurpose Dutch Shepherd, was killed in the line of duty in April at the Marshall County Correctional Facility while on patrol along a secured strip between two perimeter fences.

